to bondage and Mississippi. While was in his family married Sarah and her Oscar was William brothers the known as Cosby, even Hark chose Oscar chose Smith.

assigned to be the Oscar to Council Bluffs, all selected to be part of Brigham Young's vanguard tasked with charting a course into the Salt Lake Valley.

and Oscar were keenly aware of freedom, even if the freedom of religious worship. The first of many brave souls including Barney, church clerk Thomas Hark Wales, Oscar Smith reached the Salt Lake Valley days ahead of Brigham Young.

JANE ELIZABETH MANNING

Jane Elizabeth Manning was born in Wiliton, Connecticut around 1821. Jane and her children were unusual in never knowing the bonds of slavery. After embracing the gospel, her family joined the Saints traveling to Nauvoo in 1846 on a boat in Buffalo, New York.

Determined to gather with others, they traveled west. "We started on foot to travel a distance of several hundred miles. We walked until our feet were raw, and our feet became sore and bled until you could see the white blood on the ground. We asked for help to heal our feet and our prayers were answered."

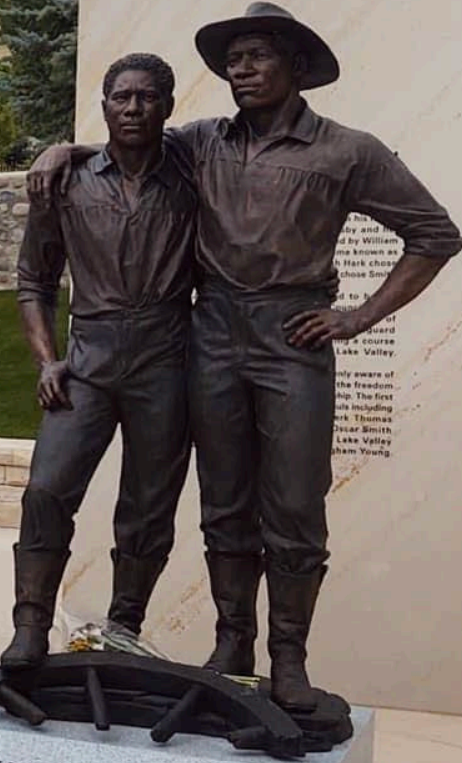

After Jane's arrival in Nauvoo, her response was, "Sister Emma had said she has no home. Haven't I lived with the Smiths and my children?"

After Joseph Smith was martyred, Isaac James, with the help of others, joined others and would have treacherous journey to escape.

The groundwork laid by Joseph Smith, and the rest of the world, make it possible for the child Mary Ann, when she was born in Lake Valley in September 1847, and respected Latter-day
