Why Partner with LDSPMA?

The LDSPMA Annual Conference brings together 500–600 authors, publishers, editors, artists, musicians, filmmakers, podcasters, and other creative professionals from across the United States, Canada, and beyond.

Our membership of nearly 3,000 creators spans even farther, creating year-round opportunities to connect with a diverse and engaged creative community.

Whether you're looking to increase brand awareness, connect with creators, recruit talent, or simply support the arts, we'd love to partner with you.

All partnerships are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Partners confirmed early in the year receive enhanced promotional benefits.
